Chairman's Message

The previous year for Todayscountry94one has been a mainly positive one, we have gained a number of new sponsors that appear to be on board for the long term. Being a Volunteer organisation our finances are always at the forefront of the board's thoughts.

At the Tamworth festival this year, 94one was again successful at the People's Choice Awards. Alan Gilmour won the People's Choice Award for most popular program for the Australian Songwriters Show and the Friday Drive show was also listed as a finalist.

Our annual talent search Brand New Star was again conducted with it being won by Mackenzie Lee.

A number of shows that call Todayscountry94one home continue to be syndicated by fellow community radio stations across Australia. These include The Australian Country Songwriters show, the Australian Bush Ballad Show and a new addition Nardia Drayton's Country Wardrobe

We have a few new presenters on board who are becoming part of the 94one family and have seen past presenters move on of their own accord. We have had some changes at board level with Chris Kastelan stepping down and new presenter Lance Kennedy assuming a guest role on the board prior to nominating for a permanent position at this years AGM.

We have also held several very successful Bunnings fundraisers raising much needed funds for the station. Due to the success of a grant application we purchased Outside Broadcast Equipment which saw us conduct several Outside Broadcasts from Sponsors businesses, Pete Lindsay and Dianne Simpson's Road To Tamworth show and from Great Keppel Island for the Country On Keppel Festival.

On behalf of Coast Community Broadcasters, I would like to thank the Board, all our loyal listeners, sponsors, announcers, and volunteers for remaining loyal and sticking with us over the last twelve months. I would also like to make specific mention of the ongoing efforts of our Treasurer Robyn Phillips for her tireless efforts regarding the station finances.

As always, the support of the Community Broadcasting Association of Australia is much appreciated and acknowledged.

All in all, we have coped well with an uncertain year, and I am positive about the road ahead.

Ron Trundle
